LGS Global gets US contract

Hyderabad, June 24

LGS Global has been chosen as the vendor to provide IT services to the Mountain Area Community Service (MACS) of North Carolina in the US. As per the agreement, LGS Global will implement the Primehealth application, streamlining the medical information, records, billing and analysis of patient information. The entire application is hosted in a cloud, according to a release from the company. Formerly known as Lanco Global Systems, the company said MACS is an organisation serving persons with mental, emotional/behaviour, physical and developmental disabilities focussed in North Carolina. — Our Bureau
